May 2012

2012 Hall Of Fame Induction

Successful • Outstanding • Memorable Night

by Jack Carlson, MHSFCA Historian

MHSFCA President, Doug Bess, and Hall of Fame Inductee, Matt Prisk.

30 consecutive years! The Michigan High School Football Coaches Association and The University of Michigan have worked hand-in-hand to host the Hall of Fame Induction and Banquet. The first induction took place in 1982 at a University of Michigan clinic with the inaugural class being the original Board of Directors. In 1992, to commemorate the tenth year of the Hall of Fame, those gentlemen were re-inducted in a much more formal ceremony.

NOTES

SITE CHANGE
All Star Game at Alma

The 2012 All Star Game, originally scheduled to be played at Central Michigan University, was moved to Alma College's newly resurfaced Bahlke Stadium when the NCAA adopted rule 13.11.1.10. The rule, intended to prohibit elite, non-school 7 on 7 teams from practicing and competing on D1 campuses does not make any discrimination between commercial "recruiting" events and All Star games such as ours. In discussions with the NCAA, while no exception for our game was granted, we were encouraged to work with Michigan's D1 schools to propose new language for the rule. We are doing that.

In the meantime, since we had already contracted with the Soaring Eagle for the All Star Awards Banquet, we approached Alma College due to its proximity to Mt. Pleasant. The athletic Department and the entire campus community at Alma have gone out of their way to help make the All Star Game possible on their campus.

Ask any former All Star participant, player or coach, and they'll tell you it was the opportunity to get to know the other All Stars involved in the game that was the highlight of their experience. That will be the same this year at Alma!

Plan to be there, 30 June, for the 32nd Annual East-West All Star Football Game! See page 20 for pre-game tickets.

MHSFCA College Prep Camps

Your student athletes are planning to attend college camps this summer. Your choices are:

A. Encourage your athletes to attend one of the two camps, May 6 at GVSU or May 13 at the Pontiac Ultimate Soccer Center.

B. Let your athletes fend for themselves and attend commercial "for profit" combines and risk losing contact with them for the rest of the summer.

Choose option A!

- Help your athletes prepare for college and university camps without the risk of losing them to elite 7 on 7, AAU style programs for the duration of the summer.
- Save your athletes and their families the expense of commercially run camps and combines that promise, but do not deliver, extra exposure to college recruiters.

College coaches do not consider recommendations of commercial recruiting agents. They listen to you! Keep it that way!

MHSFCA Recruiting Position Paper, 2012

The purpose of this Recruiting Position Paper is to bring focus and clarity to the high school football recruiting process. The Michigan High School Football Coaches Association and our State of Michigan College Coaches have joined together with the hope of properly educating our parents and student athletes. We all are concerned with the number of misleading business practices that do nothing to help students fulfill their dream of a college athletic career.

Areas of Concern:

- a. Paying a Private Recruiting Services is not advised: Paying a recruiting service for “exposure” or for help with the recruiting process does little to help in recruiting. The NCAA mandates and approves all recruiting services colleges can use. Most of these services are not accessible to the public. All of these services are free to the high school coach and student athletes. There is no harm in using “free” services, but make sure the services are NCAA approved. Most emails and “exposure” packets sent by services paid at the parents expense is considered “spam” and mostly sent to the trash.
- b. Private Combines and Showcases: Results from combines most local, private “combines” or “showcases” are questionable and Numbers and scores from such events may not be credible to a college coach. National combines may have more clout but are usually invitation only. In addition, the NCAA has very strict guidelines colleges need to follow as well as possible issues regarding amateur status.
- c. “AAU” model events: AAU coaches exist now in football and the trend is growing. The AAU coach also forms a relationship with the student athlete. You should choose wisely in regards to this process. Football coaches at all levels disagree with the AAU type approach becoming a part of high school football. Led by the Southeastern Conference (SEC) most colleges will no longer allow such events held on their campuses. There are a number of legislative proposals at all levels of football to restrict such events. These events may offer intense competition and some skill improvement, but real game performance still determines scholarship offers. *The NCAA has already acted to prohibit AAU teams from competing on D1 campuses.
2. Correct and honest student bio information and a copy of the high school transcript.
3. Complete the NCAA approved recruiting services forms so the prospects are listed in the publication.
4. Attending the MHSFCA December recruiting fairs should also be fulfilled by either the high school head coach or a member of the high school staff. A number of colleges will only recruit our state at these fairs.
- c. Attend College Camps: This is where most college scholarships are awarded. Attend and perform at the different college camps in-front of college coaches. Student athletes need to perform in front of the college coaches. College coaches want information they can trust. Performing on a college campus and against other prospects can reinforce a prospects evaluation. All camp dates are on every web site.
- d. Game Tapes: “The eye in the sky doesn’t lie!” College coaches evaluate student athletes based on real game tape footage. Make sure the college coaches have your game tape at the appropriate time (December of Junior year for D1). If they feel you are a real prospect, they will connect with you or your coach (given NCAA restrictions). The higher the division desired, the earlier the tapes are needed. For example, some D1 offers could be based on sophomore and most are based on junior game tape.

Important Aspects of Fulfilling the Dream of a Collegiate Athletic Career

Truths of the Recruiting Process:

- a. Exposure: Exposure comes from your high school coach. College coaches will continue to acquire prospect information from the high school coaches. These relationships are based on a trust built over time. Secondly, send every college a personal letter and game DVD yourself. All college programs have a staff directory on their web sites.
- b. Role of the High School Coach: Every college coach wants a truthful relationship with the high school coach. Truthful is the key factor. College coaches use a number of sources to cross-check every potential prospect. Inflated numbers, dishonest evaluations can hurt the high school coach’s future recruits. The role of the high school coach is to:

1. Supply viewable game tapes (in winter of junior year for most D1, middle to end of season for seniors.
1. Understand the NCAA and NAIA Academic Eligibility rules before the student athletes ninth grade year begins. The NCAA continues to add more restrictions to their eligibility process. The Class of 2013 will now need 16 core classes to qualify as a D2 athlete. The Class of 2015 will need a 2.3 GPA to qualify as a D1 athlete. Academic eligibility begins with the first semester report card in the 9th grade. All students and parents need to calculate the students NCAA CORE GPA every semester beginning with the 9th grade.
2. The overall GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA) is the most important number in the recruiting process. The higher the GPA above a 3.0, the more athletic opportunities a student athlete may available. The most important high school report card is the first semester of the student athletes ninth grade.
3. Academic Scholarships are Guaranteed: College athletic scholarships are limited and in high demand. Academic scholarships are available at all colleges and universities. All students can earn academic scholarships but athletic offers are determined by the evaluation of college coaches. Again, the most important report card is high school is the first semester of the 9th grade year.

Recruiting Position Paper

The Michigan High School Football Coaches Association and the State of Michigan College Coaches will continue to work together and educate our student athletes and parents. We understand the college athletic dream is a powerful motivator and all student athletes deserve the opportunity to fulfill their dream.

Partnership with Michigan National Guard

The MHSFCA has recently partnered with the Michigan National Guard. At this time, that partnership includes two areas of cooperation: I. A Michigan National Guard Night Game, II. A variety of School Education Programs.

I. Dedicate a game this fall as Michigan National Guard Night:

This is an opportunity to say “thank you” to the service given by your former players, their parents and your students who have and will give so much to defend our freedoms and serve in times of need. Volunteer your football program for one night this season to say thank you to the Michigan National Guard. The Guard will do the lion’s share of the work, very little effort will be needed by you or your staff. This is a great chance to get your school and community involved to honor our Michigan National Guard.

II. School Education Programs.

1. Partners in Education Program

a. Interactive classroom presentation

b. Prepares students for life after high school

c. Uses slides, videos, discussion points and handouts

d. Informs, motivates and empowers

e. Career planning, applying for a job, budgeting

f. Website houses a career mentor database that connects students with career mentors
2. Career Guidance Program

a. For high school freshmen and sophomores

b. Identifies rewarding careers and solid strategies

c. Includes a student workbook, interest inventory and web based student reports

d. Precursor to ASVAB Career Exploration Program

3. Mobile Event Team

- a. Put on by a unique group of currently serving Michigan Soldiers
- b. Keeps interest of students
- c. Hands-on and fosters friendly competition
- d. Great for sporting and other outside events
- e. Includes: Inflatable obstacle course; Jousting arena; Football, Basketball, Baseball tosses; Rock wall, T-Shirt cannon
4. You Can School Program

a. Classroom presentations

b. Develops necessary life skills

c. More than 30 Motivational presentations in: Health and social well being, Life betterment, Discovery, Disaster preparedness.
5. ASVAB Career Exploration Program

a. Department of Defense sponsored program

b. Future oriented, empowering career exploration

c. Includes planning materials for adequate decision-making

d. Testing and results interpretation can be included
6. Humvee School Program

a. Hands-on exciting and memorable experience

b. Informs students about technical career paths

c. Offers and up-close and personal look at a HUMVEE

d. Perfect for students interested in automotive careers

e. Includes HUMVEE history and technology

In 1983 Crisler Arena was the venue for this event. From 1983 through 2009 the location switched from Crisler Arena to the Track and Field Building on the U of M campus. Since 2010, the Sheraton Ann Arbor Hotel, an exceptional venue to hold the event, has been the site for this event. The ambiance in which all was presented, the excellent food that was enjoyed by all, and the heart warming and heartfelt acceptance speeches by the inductees once again made for an extraordinary evening for close to 400 attending.

Guest speakers for the evening have included “Woody” Hayes, Ara Parseghian, “Duffy” Daugherty, Don Canham, Alex Agase, George Perles, Jerry Hanlon, Jim Harkema, Herb Deromedi, Fred Jackson, Dave Driscoll, and Jim Herrmann all introduced by U of M head coaches. Recently, University of Michigan head football coaches, Bo Schembechler, Gary Moeller, Lloyd Carr, Rich Rodriguez, and Brady Hoke have given the main address. This great tradition is a highlight to the many in attendance.

Coach Greg Mattison stepped in for Coach Hoke this year as Coach Hoke could not make it due to health issues in his family. Coach Mattison said, he is extremely proud to be back as Defensive Coordinator of the Wolverines and assured those in attendance, that the University of Michigan will continue to host this important event for the MHSFCA and will do everything possible to continue to bring prominence once again to the winningest collegiate football program in the United States. The evening’s festivities concluded with a group picture of all inductees with Coach Mattison, which is a highlight of the evening, as many family and friends gathered to get that one special picture.

MHSFCA Executive Director Larry Merx began the evening by giving an overview of the importance of the Hall of Fame and highlighted the new and exciting “Wall of Fame” and the “Virtual Hall of Fame” which are now displayed and available to all Michigan High School Football Fans. The “Wall of Fame” is prominently displayed at the University of Michigan Football Stadium, “The Big House,” and the “Virtual Hall of Fame,” is up and running on the MHSFCA web site. (mhsfca.com)

MHSFCA President, Doug Bess, Battle Creek Central, welcomed those in attendance by saying, “As the 2012 President of the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association, I am honored to welcome you to the 30th Annual Hall of Fame Banquet and Induction Ceremony. Our organization is particularly honored and proud to be able to recognize these most deserving gentlemen for their many years of service and dedication to their respective communities. The list of their achievements and accomplishments is truly impressive. Teamwork, dedication, hard work, honesty, loyalty, perseverance, and working together for a cause greater than the individual are just a few of the values that come to mind. They have led by example and will leave behind a legacy of which they and their families will always be proud. It is with great pleasure that the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association enshrines these fine coaches and welcomes them into a select company of the greatest, most talented, and devoted men to have coached the game of football in Michigan.”

This was the 30th Annual Induction. Including this year’s inductees, the MHSFCA has inducted 658 of the finest high school football coaches in the state of Michigan into the Hall of fame. Each induction has a personality all its own, and once again, this year was no exception.

Coach Phil Bareis, Chelsea, said he had enjoyed, “having the opportunity to be associated with fine young men who learned to handle good times and bad times because of the game of football.”

Coach Paul Davis, Potterville, said, “Coaching football has provided me a career with purpose and a life with more meaning. Football has given me great memories with few regrets.”

Coach James E. Galvin, East Grand Rapids, said, “Coaching football has afforded me the opportunity to teach young men beyond the academic classroom about the importance of teamwork, discipline, leadership, humility, and to be ready for the “tests” of life every day.”

Coach Glenn Noble, Hopkins, added, “Watching young men and women work together as a team and watching them have fun in what they are doing together. Watching them mature into adults has meant a lot to me.”

Coach Joe Reddinger, North Dickinson, reflected on his career, “To teach and coach or to coach and teach are one in the same. To teach the lives of so many young people and to help raise them to adulthood in the last 35 years has been a very rewarding career.”

Coach Joe Zomerlei, South Christian, observed, “Coaching football has been a highlight of my life. I am a teacher and coaching is the ultimate in teaching: instruction, drill and practice, and weekly tests.”

Fourteen outstanding individuals were honored. Their credentials will be enshrined forever in the MHSFCA Hall of Fame. They coached for over a combined 440 seasons, won more than 2,290 football games, but most of all, touched the lives of countless individuals. The inductees expressed their love of coaching and their love of football and they recognized their families, who have made it possible for them to do what they love – coach football.

There are constants at the Hall of Fame Induction ceremonies: The inductees are men of achievement and integrity, who give credit to their families, their players, their fellow coaches, and their communities for their success. The dedication of the members of the association who take care of the many details that go into organizing, preparing, and maintaining the induction and banquet. The members of the association, who, behind the scenes, give their time and energy, with no thanks needed, to make this an exceptional evening for the inductees, their families and friends. Without them, this event would not be the extraordinary evening that it is.

The 30th Annual MHSFCA Hall of Fame Induction and Banquet was once again a truly remarkable evening. Congratulations to the Inductees: The Class of 2012. The Best of the Best and the Finest of the Finest.

Partnership with NFL and American Cancer Society (ACA) Crucial Catch Game

From the ACA:

This fall The American Cancer Society will launch a Paint the State Pink High School Football breast cancer awareness campaign to benefit Making Strides Against Breast Cancer events all over the state called Crucial Catch. Over the past few years the NFL has played a major role in helping The American Cancer Society spread the word about early detection and has helped to raise funds in the fight against breast cancer. This year they are reaching out to local high school football teams to join in the fight.

During the month of October the ACA hopes to recruit high school coaches to host a Pink Game to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer prevention and education. Local American Cancer Society staff will be available to help plan and execute your game! Please email Beth.Campbell@cancer.org if you are interested in hosting a game during October! To learn more about the Crucial Catch program go to nfl.com/pink and download the High School Toolkit for a ton of great information. We hope to engage hundreds of coaches here in Michigan to truly make a statewide impact!

USMC Semper Fi Coach Award

The United States Marine Corps and (MHSFCA Partner) Glazier Football Clinics believe there is a clear parallel between the high school football coach who develops student-athletes and the Marine Corps which develops Elite Warriors and quality citizens.

The intent behind the Semper Fi Coach Award is to recognize a high school football coach who exemplifies the Marine Corps motto: Semper Fidelis — Always Faithful — and who models the Marine Corps' leadership values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment. A Semper Fi Coach is not defined by winning records or championship titles, but rather as a man who creates a legacy of intentional leadership.

It is our pleasure to honor a coach who has built a lasting tradition through his selfless commitment to his team and his community. Tommie Elliott has been coaching football for almost twenty years. Elliott began his coaching career on the Muskegon High School staff for 16 years, coaching on three state championship teams in '86, '89, and '04.

He went on to become head football coach of Muskegon Heights High School. Muskegon Heights had not had a winning season or made the playoffs in 13 years. In Coach Elliott's first year, he led the Tigers to a 7-2 record, made the playoffs, and was named Coach of the Year by the Muskegon Chronicle and the MHSFCA in 2005.

In 2009, Coach Elliott became the assistant head coach at Mona Shores High School - a program that had not had a winning season in 13 years. He helped them earn their first winning season and received the 2009 MHSFCA Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Last year Coach Elliott took over the Grand Rapids Union High School program as head football coach; a program that hadn't won a game in three years. Coach Elliott led Union to win this past season, and his players and other coaches in the conference commented throughout the season that the leadership of Coach Elliott is turning the program around.

Tommie Elliott and Major John M. Gianella

Known for setting a high standard, and teaching his athletes to be mentally tough, there is no doubt that the future looks bright at Union for Coach Elliott and the Red Hawks.

When asked what he enjoys most about football, Coach Elliott said, "I enjoy being able to teach young men how to play the game with respect for their opponents and the game itself. I also enjoy being able to teach life lessons and how to be of good character; which are things that they can continue to carry on through life."

Tommie Elliott is a man who has given back to his community and invests in developing the character of his players, both on and off the field. He said, "The most fulfilling part of my job is watching the growth of our players as the season progresses, which sometimes leads them to furthering their education at the next level. Then, they in return, get a chance to come back and share their stories. My staff and I have a strong belief in "Each one Teach one."

Adrenaline/MHSFCA CS Reading Award

2012 Winners • Kingsley & Fenton

The CS Reading Award is a community service project in which student athletes serve as role models to elementary students. Student athletes are matched with elementary teachers and their students. The high school football players then attend the elementary classroom during one class period per week, at least during the football season and read to the students.

The MHSFCA presents a grant to the elementary school/s that participated in the project. The grant is to be used to purchase books to expand student access to reading materials.

Adrenaline has agreed to fund two $500 Community Service Reading awards in conjunction with the MHSFCA.

Nominations due by December 1

Concussion Education

At Michigan NeuroSport education is a key component to keeping concussions on the sideline. As the science involving concussion is rapidly evolving, our team is working hard to get the most up-to-date information to those on the frontline – athletes, parents of athletes and coaches.

Michigan NeuroSport offers a free online concussion education program to share this knowledge so you can better understand, prevent and recognize concussions earlier. The program is made up of four modules – some of the firsts of their kind – are excellent resources for you. Each one is presented in an interactive format, and includes downloadable resources for you to have on hand, such as fact sheets, pledge forms, report forms and more.

The four modules make up the ConcussionAction Plan:

- RECOGNIZE the signs and symptoms
- REMOVE athlete from play
- REPORT to a coach, parent or athletic trainer
- RECOVER completely before returning to play

The program includes three courses:

- High School Coaches Edition
- Youth Coaches Edition
- Parent Edition (*New)

To access the courses, create a new user login (free) at:
http://courses.mihealth.org/UMNeurosport/cm0660/home.html

The program, which is a partnership with Mott Children’s Hospital Pediatric Trauma Program, is endorsed by the American Academy of Neurology, the Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA), the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association (MHSFCA) and the Michigan Youth Athletic Association.

In addition to the online program, we also provide in-person workshops. For more information or to schedule a workshop tailored to your sports’ needs, contact: U-M Mott Injury Prevention Program at 734-764-7281.

Thank You Port Huron Northern High School!

A special thanks to Port Huron Northern High School for their support of our 2012 event. Port Huron Northern’s student leadership class raised nearly $1,000 for Tackling TS Charity!

Charity to Support 2012 Summer Camp for TS Kids

Tackling TS Charity recently cut a check for $15,000 to ensure all children with TS can attend a summer camp in Cincinnati, Ohio free of charge. Although this genetic disorder makes life difficult for many, we hope that these special children can enjoy 2-3 days of camp. Thanks to all who have supported our cause through our events and thoughts/prayers.

What is Tuberous Sclerosis (TS)?

Tuberous sclerosis is a genetic disorder that causes tumors to form in many different organs, primarily in the brain, eyes, heart, kidney, skin and lungs. You will see it referred to both as tuberous sclerosis (TS) and tuberous sclerosis complex (TSC). The true prevalence of TS is unknown, but its incidence has recently been estimated to be 1 in 6,000 live births. This means approximately 50,000 individuals in the United States and more than 1 million worldwide have TSC. It occurs in both sexes and in all races and ethnic groups.

Tuberous sclerosis is characterized by lesions of the skin and central nervous system, tumor growth and seizures. The disease affects some people severely, while others are so mildly affected that it often goes undiagnosed. Some people with tuberous sclerosis experience developmental delay, mental retardation and autism.

The Communication Chain - Coaches and Officials

By Mark Uyl, MHSAA Assistant Director

At the high school level, proper communication is a key issue between coaches and officials. The better these two groups can communicate during a game, the better that game will go for everyone involved. This issue is not only a football issue, but is one we talk about in all sports with officials and coaches. Remember that all of us involved in school sports are here for the betterment of the game!

Below is an article written by Dan Christner, teacher and basketball coach at Brighton High School and also a board member of the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan (BCAM). Dan wrote the following article for the BCAM newsletter recently, and it received such positive feedback from both coaches and officials that we want to share it with the football community, as well. Please note the article has been modified slightly for the differences between football and basketball.

Again, thank you to Dan and I hope all of you enjoy his thoughts below. This article will also be shared with all MHSAA football officials in our pre-season materials for the 2012 season.

What follows is a list of things that officials would rather not see or hear from coaches during a game. They are presented in no particular order.

Screaming

It is true that screaming is a form of communication. But ask yourself: what is my communication goal here? Your intent is to probably have the game official pay closer attention to the point that you are trying to make. Do you really think that the official is going to improve their judgment after they have been yelled at? We have all seen a coach scream at a referee. Now think about the number of times that you have seen a referee scream at a coach.

Point to Consider:

Don't scream at police officers, judges or labor arbitra-tors. It isn't smart and it isn't professional, and this level of professionalism should be exhibited at a high school or middle school football game.

Dismissive Gestures, i.e. the two hand wave-off

Pretend that you are at practice. The team is working on a blocking or contact drill. You are confronted with a player who isn't willing to put forth the effort to fully commit to the technique. You stop the drill and explain to the player why this technique is important to the team's strategy. After your explanation, the player turns their back to you and gives you the two hand wave-off. How would you react? When we use the same gesture toward an official, it sends the same disrespectful message. This gesture serves to insight the spectators and by rule it is grounds for an unsportsmanlike conduct foul.

Point to Consider:

Treat others as you would like to be treated.

This is a listing of things that coaches would not prefer to see or hear from officials. They are presented in no particular order.

The Hand

The message that the hand connotes is: "Shut up, I'm not talking to you." This is insulting. The coach is trying to alert the official about a concern. The hand is a dismissive gesture.

Point to Consider:

Verbalize the hand gesture by saying: "I haven't got time right now but I'll be back to address your concern."

"It's only a Middle School/Freshman/JV game."

As long as the scoreboard is on (and often even when it isn't), players and coaches will be trying as hard as they can to win. The age of the players has no bearing on this fact. Officials who take the attitude that it's only a middle school game may not realize it, but they are insulting the players and coaches of that contest.

Point to Consider:

As long as you are wearing the uniform of the game official, you owe it to yourself and to the game to dedicate your efforts in the same manner and with the same diligence as the players and coaches.

If coaches and officials would keep these points in mind next fall, the number of issues that arise will decrease. Keeping our interactions professional and to the point will only enhance the jobs that both coaches and officials provide.

*This is the second in a series of articles from the MHSAA's Mark Uyl. It is the product of the newly formed MHSFCA/ Football Officials Communication Committee.

College Prep

Football Camp

In Partnership With

Total Student Athlete, Inc.

The 1ST Annual MHSFCA college prep camps will be held in May 2012 on the west side of the state at Grand Valley State University on May 6th and on the East side of the state at Pontiac Ultimate Soccer Complex on May 13th. The purpose of these camps is to help Michigan HS football players fulfill their dream of becoming a college student athlete. The camps will focus on four facets of college football. The camp #1. will educate and instruct players on the proper college football techniques taught by college coaches. #2. Educate the student athlete on the proper techniques used to test prospects on college campuses. #3. Educate the athlete on the NCAA and NAIA eligibility rules and requirements to become a student athlete. #4. Stress the importance of the high school GPA. *All student athletes need to understand why only a 3.0+ should be the only acceptable grade on their transcript.

Camps Run By: Michigan College Football Coaches

The MHSFCA has invited Michigan Division III and NAIA football coaches to run each position in the camps. Our coaching staff will use first-hand knowledge of the techniques required at the collegiate level. These camps are designed to prepare aspiring college athletes to perform their best at college sponsored camps - the only camps that college coaches trust.

Parent Seminar

We offer a parent educa-tion seminar to all parents. This seminar will cover recruiting, college admissions, and national testing requirements.

Michigan High School Football Coaches Association

Alliance Award

MHSFCA Youth Football Committee

The MHSFCA Alliance Award is offered as a token of appreciation to person(s) having made a long-term commitment to youth football. Individuals that actively promote youth football, simply for a love of the game, and have done so for a long period of time, are excellent candidates. Coaches can be nominated if their contributions expand far beyond personal team(s). Won/loss records are of no concern. As a rule of thumb, persons that have affected the most youngsters over the longest period of time will receive the most consideration through this process. To date, all recipients of this award have been involved with youth football more than 20 years. Volunteers will be given additional consideration.

The nomination process will be completed when this form and accompanying letter are received on or prior to April 1 of the upcoming year. Please mail to: Scott Farley, 204 Morningside, P. O. Box 67, Leslie, MI 49251-0067
