Recruiting Fairs Gain Popularity

Above Taylor Kennedy coach, Brian Obrycki discusses prospects with Hope College coach, Mike Ricketts.

The recruiting fairs save college coaches time and money and allow high school coaches to do their job, promoting their athletes, much more efficiently to colleges including schools that they and their athletes may otherwise not have considered. This was the biggest year yet for attendance as more and more Michigan coaches realize the advantages they offer.

Operation Michigan Guard

At the Fall meeting of the MHSFCA Board of Directors, the Board received a presentation from Erik Baker, Mohawk HS, Sycamore, OH. Coach Baker started a program last spring with his football team to support the local National Guard unit which was about to deploy to Afganistan. Before the end of the fall season 361 Ohio football teams had started support programs of their own. Clearly the program struck a cord with football coaches in Ohio. See the web site for some of the things that have been done:

http://www.mohawk.k12.oh.us/war-riors4.aspx

If you are interested in doing something with your team to support a Michigan National Guard unit, there may be resources available to help. Contact Larry Merx, LarryMerx@gmail.com.

All Star Selection

All Star selection meetings are open to all MHSFCA members. Each nominee's name will be brought-up and coaches in attendance will have an opportunity to make concise remarks about them. All Star coaches selected to coach the game and MHSFCA Board members will then vote on each player by position.

MHSFCA NEWSLETTER

MHSFCA.com

he MHSFCA.com web site continues to evolve.
One of the recent additions has been the inclusion of recruiting information in the form of "webinars," recorded presentations dealing with the recruiting process. There are two "webinars" one designed to be watched by athletes and their parents, the other designed for coaches, counselors and AD's. These webinars contain up-to-date information and address misconceptions and misunderstandings about the requirements and process of recruiting. They should be required viewing by all of us.

Also available at MHSFCA.com

The "Prospect Information Form" (http://www.mhsfca.com/?p=1662) designed by the recruiting committee to collect information on your college prospects so that we can pass it on to Michigan's college coaches.

Clicking on the "Coaching Placement" tab will allow you to post your résumé, and search for available coaching and teaching jobs. *We need your email address on file with your membership information for you to access this portion of the web site.

Many other resources are available at MHSFCA.com, be sure to click through the pages on a regular basis.

Wall of Fame Web Site

or many many years the MHSFCA has sought a Hall of Fame, a place to display the accomplishments of our members and of the Association itself. Two years ago, we made the decision to create this Hall of Fame online. Still a work in progress, you can find the "Virtual" Hall of Fame by going to MHSFCA. com and clicking on "Hall of Fame." Once on the Virtual Hall of Fame web site, you can review old newsletters 1973-2006, (*2007-2011 newsletters are at MHSFCA.com), read the biographies of previous all star game participants, find previous Hall of Fame coaches including photos and, starting with the class of 2011, videos of their acceptance speeches. Other award winners are still being added, i.e. Honorary members, Crowley Award winners, Leadership Award winners, etc. Check back regularly.

The virtual Hall of Fame also includes a calendar (under "Events") listing MHSFCA meetings and events.
